Food and Fashion In Milan

Dinner Partners

The new single-room eatery Teatro 7 resembles a casual, cozy apartment. Decorated with cabbage flowers and dark wooden tables and chairs, the dining room looks into the glass-walled kitchen, where the cooking action is captured and telecast live on the Web. Chefs and friends Rico Guarnieri and Claudio Colombo Severini wanted to create an eatery that was simple and accessible, which explains the straightforward menu (which changes every five days) and the carefully chosen wine list (sourced everywhere from Sicily to Piedmont). For a late-night fall supper, Guarnieri recommends comfort food such as pumpkin risotto and pork filet with eggplant.
