

GUINNESS DEI PRIMATI: A MILANO IL TIRAMISU' PIU' LUNGO DI SEMPRE, 273 METRI

Tiramisu prepared by Galbani Saint Lucia is the longest in the world, with its 273.5 meters was awarded the title of Guinness world records in the specialty. 50,000 ladyfingers, mascarpone Galbani 500 kg of Saint Lucia, 300 liters of coffee, 65 kg of sugar, 60 kg of egg yolk, 70 kg of egg white, 65 kg of cocoa ingredients are used to accomplish this finish line.

For allestirlo were 30 bakers in cooking school Teatro7 | Lab who, led by chef Stefano Callegaro, have organized the sweet record within the CityLife Shopping District in Milan, in collaboration with Aadv Entertainment. After measuring the cake with a rib and the support of an architect, the judge of the Guinness World Records has certified that it was the world's longest tiramisù: with its 273.5 meters beats the previous record of 266.9 meters reached last year in Friuli Venezia Giulia.

The event - a note reads - has seen the involvement of OBM Onlus Children's Hospital Buzzi in Milan that Galbani claims for 2019 with Obm Home project. Galbani is also partner of the Food Bank, through which he donated to the canteens of Lombardy, Tuscany and Emilia Romagna all the ingredients for the creation of a further 15,000 servings of tiramisù.

If you have corrections, suggestions or comments, please write to dir@agi.it. If you want to reveal information about this or other stories, please write to Italialeaks, platform designed to contact our staff so completely anonymous. Please follow and like us: